From the Team Vicar

Dear Friends,

On Sunday we celebrate Harvest Services at Egleton, Hambleton and Brooke. Next Sunday we shall do the same at Braunston. Is harvest still relevant in the twenty first century?

Harvest is fundamentally about thankfulness; we thank God for what he has given to us in the past and we praise him for sustaining our lives in the present. It is important to cultivate an attitude of thankfulness. St Paul urges us to “Rejoice always, pray without ceasing, give thanks in all circumstances”. How can we do this? One help is to build thanksgiving into our pattern of prayer – for instance in giving thanks before a meal. We praise and thank God as well as asking for things. And as a church family we celebrate the festival of harvest.

In these difficult and restricted times we will still hear harvest hymns and songs (though mostly in recorded versions) and there will be Bible and other readings, with a talk and prayers. Services will be shorter! Please remember to bring a face covering to wear.

Giving thanks though isn't just a box to tick before we move on to other concerns and priorities. How else are we responding to God's generous provision? We sometimes use the word 'stewardship' to talk about the way that we look after all that God has given us. Are we being good stewards as well as thankful people? So, how much do I recycle? How much energy do I waste? How much meat do I consume? Do I shop locally as much as I can? Do I try and buy items that I know are ethically produced or sourced? Do I try to avoid companies known to treat their workers poorly?

This year has brought illness, bereavement, isolation, and work and financial worries. Yet we have also seen air pollution levels fall and wildlife begin to recover and even flourish. There is a sense of creation being restored as humanity steps away from some of its more damaging activities. All of this to reflect on as we gather once again to celebrate the harvest. God's good gifts to us celebrated in thanksgiving and praise – and a determination to live as good stewards of those gifts.

Come, ye thankful people, come
Raise the song of harvest home
All is safely gathered in Ere the winter storms begin
God our Maker doth provide
For our wants to be supplied
Come to God's own temple, come
Raise the song of harvest home

A favourite hymn and why...

chosen this week by Hilda Townsend from St Andrews Church Whissendine.

My favourite hymn since I was about 10 years of age has been. My song is Love unknown, My Saviour's love to me,

The words, all of them, speak for themselves, especially to me.

My Saviour's love to me

1. My song is love unknown,
my Saviour's love to me,
love to the loveless shown,
that they might lovely be.
O, who am I,
that for my sake
my Lord should take frail flesh and die?

2. He came from his blest throne,
salvation to bestow;
but men made strange, and none
the longed-for Christ would know.
But O, my Friend,
my Friend indeed,
who at my need
his life did spend!

3. Sometimes they strew his way,
and His sweet praises sing;
resounding all the day
hosannas to their King.
Then 'Crucify!'
is all their breath,
and for his death
they thirst and cry.

*4. Why, what hath my Lord done?
What makes this rage and spite?
He made the lame to run,
he gave the blind their sight.
Sweet injuries!
yet they at these
themselves displease,
and against him rise.

5. They rise, and needs will have my dear Lord made away;
a murderer they save,
the Prince of Life they slay.
Yet cheerful he
to suffering goes,
that he his foes
from thence might free.

*6. In life, no house, no home my Lord on earth might have;
in death, no friendly tomb
but what a stranger gave.
What may I say?
Heaven was his home;
but mine the tomb
wherein he lay.

7. Here might I stay and sing,
no story so divine;
never was love, dear King,
never was grief like thine!
This is my Friend,
in whose sweet praise
I all my days
could gladly spend.

Words: Samuel Crossman (c1624-1683)

Music: Love Unknown, John Nicholson Ireland (1879-1962)

Hymns for this week

Come ye thankful people

1. Come, ye thankful people, come,
raise the song of harvest-home:
all be safely gathered in,
ere the winter storms begin;
God, our Maker, doth provide
for our wants to be supplied;
come to God's own temple, come;
raise the song of harvest-home!

2. All the world is God's own field, fruit unto his praise to yield;
wheat and tares together sown,
unto joy or sorrow grown;
first the blade and then the ear,
then the full corn shall appear:
grant, O harvest Lord, that we wholesome grain and pure may be.

3. For the Lord our God shall come,
and shall take his harvest home;
from his field shall purge away
all that doth offend, that day;
give his angels charge at last
in the fire the tares to cast,
but the fruitful ears to store
in his garner evermore.

4. Then, thou Church Triumphant, come,
raise the song of harvest-home;
all be safely gathered in,
free from sorrow, free from sin,
there for ever purified
in God's garner to abide:
come, ten thousand angels, come,
raise the glorious harvest-home!

ords: Henry Alford (1810-1871)
Music: St George's Windsor, George Job Elvey (1816-1893)
(Ancient & Modern – 282)

We Plough the fields and scatter

O Praise ye the Lord!

1. O praise ye the Lord! Praise him in the height;
rejoice in his word, ye angels of light;
ye heavens adore him by whom ye were made,
and worship before him, in brightness arrayed.
2. O praise ye the Lord! Praise him upon earth,
in tuneful accord, ye sons of new birth;
praise him who hath brought you his grace from above,
praise him who hath taught you to sing of his love.
3. O praise ye the Lord, all things that give sound;
each jubilant chord re-echo around;
loud organs, his glory forth tell in deep tone,
and, sweet harp, the story of what he hath done.
4. O praise ye the Lord! Thanksgiving and song to him be outpoured all ages along;
for love in creation, for heaven restored,
for grace of salvation, O praise ye the Lord! Amen, amen.

Words: Henry Williams Baker (1821-1877)

Psalm 100

1 O be joyful in the Lord, all the earth; *
serve the Lord with gladness
and come before his presence with a song.

Prayers of Penitence

The gospel calls us to turn away from sin and be faithful to Christ.
As we offer ourselves to him in penitence and faith,
we renew our confidence and trust in his mercy.

Lord God,
we have sinned against you;
we have done evil in your sight.
We are sorry and repent.
Have mercy on us according to your love.
Wash away our wrongdoing and cleanse us from our sin.
Renew a right spirit within us
and restore to us the joy of your salvation;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

May the Father of all mercies
cleanse us from our sins,
and restore us in his image
to the praise and glory of his name,
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father.

and to the Holy Spirit;

First Reading – Jonah 3.10-4.11

A reading from the Prophet Jonah

When God saw what the people of Nineveh did, how they turned from their evil ways, God changed his mind about the calamity that he had said he would bring upon them; and he did not do it. But this was very displeasing to Jonah, and he became angry. He prayed to the LORD and said, 'O LORD! Is not this what I said while I was still in my own country? That is why I fled to Tarshish at the beginning; for I knew that you are a gracious God and merciful, slow to anger, and abounding in steadfast love, and ready to relent from punishing. And now, O LORD, please take my life from me, for it is better for me to die than to live.' And the LORD said, 'Is it right for you to be angry?' Then Jonah went out of the city and sat down east of the city, and made a booth for himself there. He sat under it in the shade, waiting to see what would become of the city. The LORD God appointed a bush, and made it come up over Jonah, to give shade over his head, to save him from his discomfort; so Jonah was very happy about the bush. But when dawn came up the next day, God appointed a worm that attacked the bush, so that it withered. When the sun rose, God prepared a sultry east wind, and the sun beat down on the head of Jonah so that he was faint and asked that he might die. He said, 'It is better for me to die than to live.' But God said to Jonah, 'Is it right for you to be angry about the bush?' And he said, 'Yes, angry enough to die.' Then the LORD said, 'You are concerned about the bush, for which you did not labour and which you did not grow; it came into being in a night and perished in a night. And should I not be concerned about Nineveh, that great city, in which there are more than a hundred and twenty thousand people who do not know their right hand from their left, and also many animals?'

This is the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Second Reading – Philippians 1.21-30

A reading from Paul's letter to the Philippians

For to me, living is Christ and dying is gain. If I am to live in the flesh, that means fruitful labour for me; and I do not know which I prefer. I am hard pressed between the two: my desire is to depart and be with Christ, for that is far better; but to remain in the flesh is more necessary for you. Since I am convinced of this, I know that I will remain and continue with all of you for your progress and joy in faith, so that I may share abundantly in your boasting in Christ Jesus when I come to you again. Only, live your life in a manner worthy of the gospel of Christ, so that, whether I come and see you or am absent and hear about you, I will know that you are standing firm in one spirit, striving side by side with one mind for the faith of the gospel, and are in no way intimidated by your opponents. For them this is evidence of their destruction, but of your salvation. And this is God's doing. For he has graciously granted you the privilege not only of believing in Christ, but of suffering for him as well – since you are having the same struggle that you saw I had and now hear that I still have.

This is the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Gospel Reading – Matthew 20.1-16

A reading from the Gospel according to Matthew

Jesus said to his disciples: 'The kingdom of heaven is like a landowner who went out early in the morning to hire labourers for his vineyard. After agreeing with the labourers for the usual daily wage, he sent them into his vineyard. When he went out about nine o'clock, he saw others standing idle in the market-place; and he said to them, "You also go into the vineyard, and I will pay you whatever is right." So they went. When he went out again about noon and about three o'clock, he did the same. And about five o'clock he went out and found others standing around; and he said to them, "Why are you standing here idle all day?" They said to him, "Because no one has hired us." He said to them, "You also go into the vineyard." When evening came, the owner of the vineyard said to his manager, "Call the labourers and give them their pay, beginning with the last and then going to the first." When those hired about five o'clock came, each of them received the usual daily wage. Now when the first came, they thought they would receive more; but each of them also received the usual daily wage. And when they received it, they grumbled against the landowner, saying, "These last worked only one hour, and you have made them equal to us who have borne the burden of the day and the scorching heat." But he replied to one of them, "Friend, I am doing you no wrong; did you not agree with me for the usual daily wage? Take what belongs to you and go; I choose to give to this last the same as I give to you. Am I not allowed to do what I choose with what belongs to me? Or are you envious because I am generous?" So the last will be first, and the first will be last.'

This is the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Reflection by Vyv Wainwright - Reader

Once upon a time Mr Very Angry arrived in a car park in a small historic market town somewhere in the centre of England. He loved to drive around in his very angry red fast car and would rev his engine hard to scare the dear ladies of the parish. He parked his car where he was not allowed to, as was his custom, and went to pay for his ticket. But then he got very very angry indeed and shouted out very loudly that the horrid car park company did not accept hard earned cash anymore in the parking ticket machines. So, he just went absolutely berserk to the point of seething with rage and utterly losing the plot. Even the Angry App on his phone started getting worried.

Meanwhile God heard how angry Mr Very Angry was up in heaven and wondered what on earth all this anger was about? God therefore decided to dispatched an angel called Timid Tina. Timid Tina begged not to go but God said just be yourself and all will be well. Have faith.

Timid Tina was very pleased with her little electric car that the car department had given her and so she parked it nicely in a nice little parking space especially for nice little electric cars and plug it in all for free. She saw how very angry Mr Very Angry was. She decided to tip-toe up to the ticket machine whilst Mr Very Angry was about to bust a blood vessel. She got out her phone and held it against the ticket machine. Out came a nice little ticket and Mr Very Angry was silent. Timid Tina now reached into the pocket of Mr Very Angry's suit and took out his phone and held it against the ticket machine and behold out came a ticket.

Mr Very Angry remembered who he was and would have none of this nice and kind behaviour! He was angry, so he snatched the ticket from Timid Tina, shouted at her for interfering and stabbed a telephone number into his phone. Within seconds he was answered and he shouted that he wanted to speak to his MP now. Timid Tina would not have this though. She took the phone out his hand and gave him a right good dressing down about all the nasty things he had done throughout his life by being so horrid and angry. And to cap it all she had been in touch with his Mum who was on her way right now to sort him out. Mr Very Angry now looked more like Mr Very Terrified, oh dear!

Jonah was seriously angry in our Old Testament reading. He had a ticket for the football match in Spain to see Liverpool versus Barcelona but oh no, in came a text from God asking him to go to Nineveh. Pardon me, says Jonah, but are Liverpool playing there? I think not. And so, to cut a long story short, having been delivered back from Spain, courtesy of a whale, Jonah has done as he has asked.

Jonah is not happy. Surely, he should be happy we all say. Have not the people of Nineveh heard the message that Jonah has given from God? Have they not responded? Indeed, they have. Well done surely Jonah? Well actually no, Jonah is well and truly cross. The thing is he thought that God was really going to sort out the city of Nineveh big time. He thought that the missiles would fly in and that zillions of tanks would flood across the plains into the city and there would be loads of street fighting and explosions. Instead the citizens and the cattle of Nineveh, all said sorry. Now we find Jonah in our reading having a good old-fashioned sulk. He is sulking so much that he totally ignores the fact that God is actually thankful for what he has done and is looking after him. Gosh look at this large leaf plant which just happened to sprout right next to you to provide who with lovely shelter. But Jonah is still sulking and angry. God decided the best thing to do is to ring Jonah and just tell him that actually really deep-down God loves Jonah and God also loves Nineveh and thank you for what you have done but hey don't get angry – please!

Meanwhile, in the New Testament reading the shop stewards meeting has been held and the workers have been consulted and they are disgusted with the way in which the brothers and sisters' workers have been treated. Thus, there is anger and upset and a cause for a ballot and industrial action. Mrs Vineyard owner is sad. She points out that actually she was only trying to help folk who had no work. She made an offer to each potential employee of one silver coin for working in her vineyard that day. Each person who was approached agreed to these terms and conditions and well they went to work. She therefore feels that she has made an offer which has been duly accepted by each person and so they should not be angry but surely happy.

Just recently I noted a title on a book called The Right to Anger. On the cover was someone who was angry with their fist up in anger. Anger is a real emotion and a real emotion which often comes from the heart. And yet it can damage the heart and our lives as a consequence, as we know. Even Jesus got angry the day he went into the temple and kicked over the tables of the money changers.

As we see and know anger does occur in life. Over the last few years anger seems to have come out of the woodwork somehow with road rage, riots, violence against the police, ambulance crews, medical staff in hospitals and the fire service all when these very people are trying to help out. Anger against MPs, councillors and many professionals, teachers, workers and just about everyone. And where does it get us? Blood pressure, heart attacks, stress.

Surely as Christians we are people of peace? People who will listen to genuine concerns and upsets of others and do our best to understand. But surely, we are peace makers, are we not? Does not Jesus say that Blessed are the peace makers?

Cry out about injustice, cry out about the way in which the creation is being treated, cry out for peace on the planet, cry out about abuse and torture, march, protest and email your MP or councillor. Yet let us not forget that we are people of peace.

If you are feeling angry then count to 10, talk to someone (not shout) and get help if you feel you need it or you might like to say this prayer from the Northumbrian Community –

*Calm me O Lord as you stilled the storm
Still me O Lord
Keep me from harm
Let al, the tumult within in me cease
Enfold me Lord in your peace.
Amen*

Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again;
he ascended into heaven,
he is seated at the right hand of the Father,
and he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,

the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting.
Amen.

The Collect for Trinity 15

Almighty God,
whose only Son has opened for us
a new and living way into your presence:
give us pure hearts and steadfast wills
to worship you in spirit and in truth;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

Amen.

Prayers of Intercession by Nat Stiles, Trainee Youth Minister

Your kingdom come; your will be done.

Father, we pray for your Holy Spirit to guide us, as we follow your will in our lives.
Forgive us when we have turned a blind eye or a deaf ear to your call,
help us to be willing to answer, and not run the other way,
strengthened by the power of your message.

Your kingdom come; your will be done.

Father, you are slow to anger and rich in love, let us delight in sharing your good news to each generation.
We pray they will know your mighty and wonderful works,
and praise our God of endless love, power, and glorious splendor,
as we praise your name for ever and ever.

Your kingdom come; your will be done.

Father, we thank you for your gift of grace, in our lives.
Help us to remember that your gift of heaven is through your grace alone, and not a reward for our good behaviour or position, but a sign of your generosity and forgiveness.

Help us to think less of ourselves and more of others, never looking down on our neighbours unless we are helping them up, seeing your image in those around us.
We praise the reassurance of your grace.

Your kingdom come; your will be done.

Father, as we stand firm in the Lord and rejoice in you always, we pray for the God of peace to be with all who need our prayers.

All who are ill, in hospitals, home or wherever they may be,

We pray for the recently departed, and all those whose hearts have been saddened by death, surround them with your tenderness and support them in your everlasting arms.

Calming God bring courage, tender Spirit bring peace, and gentle Jesus, be close to all.

Your kingdom come; your will be done.

The Lord's Prayer

As our Saviour taught us, so we pray:

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive them that trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation;
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, the power,
and the glory, now and for ever.
Amen.

¶ Conclusion

The Lord bless us, and preserve us from all evil,
and keep us in eternal life.

Amen.

Go in peace to love and serve the Lord.

In the name of Christ. Amen.

Blessing

Resources for Worship

During this time when we cannot worship together in church, there are a number of alternatives available:

- The Oakham Team Facebook page, where one of the ministry team will lead a live stream of Morning Prayer at 8.30am on weekdays and Holy Communion or Morning Prayer at 10.30am on Sundays. These will also be available on the Team website, together with the service sheet and Weekly Pewsheets;
- Compline. David Perril continues a weekly service of Compline every Wednesday at 8.30pm on the Oakham Team Facebook page.
- The Church of England has an online resources page at <https://www.churchofengland.org/more/media-centre/church-online>, including Easter Pilgrim and Time to Pray (see below).
- Daily Hope Phone Line. Daily Hope offers music, prayers and reflections as well as full worship services from the Church of England at the end of a telephone line. A Church of England initiative in partnership with CONNECTIONS at Holy Trinity Claygate, and Faith in Later Life. The line – which is available 24 hours a day on 0800 804 8044 – has been set up particularly with those unable to join online church services during the period of restrictions in mind. Options available include materials also available digitally by the Church of England's Communications team such as Prayer During the Day and Night Prayer updated daily, from Common Worship, and a recording of the Church of England weekly national online service. A section called Hymn Line offers callers a small selection of hymns, updated daily. 50th Anniversary of Ordination

Congratulations to Reverend Canon Michael Wilson who was ordained priest on 20th September 1970. Canon Michael was ordained at Southwell Minster by the Bishop of Sherwood, the Right Reverend Kenneth Thompson. Michael served a curacy at Worksop Priory before taking up positions in Worcester Diocese and Leicester Diocese. In Leicester Michael held the posts of Vicar of the Parish of St Anne, Team Rector of the Ascension Team, and Canon Treasurer of Leicester Cathedral. Michael and Beryl retired to Oakham but he remains active in ministry in the Dioceses of Peterborough and Leicester.

Congratulations on your special anniversary Michael, and thank you for your continued support for the ministry here in the Oakham Team.

It is pleasing to report that as the stall is continuing to run in the background sales are still buoyant with August's amounting to £127.93 - slightly up on July's figure which is great. My thanks as ever to all of you who continue to support the amazing work Traidcraft are continuing to do. I will shortly have supplies of the new Autumn/Winter catalogue which if you are not aware of all the wonderful things Traidcraft has to offer would be a good introduction. Please do get in touch for one or indeed just to order some tea/coffee etc. neecy.mcdonald@btinternet.com

Foodbank Update for Rutland Churches and Key Partners August 2020

I'm pleased to share another update from the Rutland Foodbank as we've been dealing with the impact of the COVID-19 crisis on those experiencing food poverty.

As many of you will know we are still unable to welcome back our over 70s volunteers. This is due to difficulties in ensuring we can provide them with safe working spaces as per the Government Guidance. We miss the experience and support they give but I'm sure you understand that the trustees have a duty of care to ensure we don't risk individual safety.

We continue our operations from the new Oakham premises (36 Melton Road) and we are still open on Monday and Friday mornings 10.30 - 12.00 to receive donations and enquiries. At the present time we do not feel that we can re-start our drop-in sessions either at our premises in Oakham or at Uppingham Church.

Our links with Citizens Advice Rutland (CAR) are strong and we continue to have support from Rutland County Council (RCC). They have both helped by adopting the Trussell Trust electronic referral system as we are now operating with eVouchers. The CAR team (01572 723494) are also able to support and signpost to other services such as benefits and or debt management as needed. We encourage new and returning clients to speak to them for advice and assessment.

Our referral numbers have increased, since April 1st we have received over 300 referrals. We anticipate they will continue to rise especially as the economic impact of the pandemic begins to emerge. We are looking to expand the number of electronic referrers – if your church or organisation is interested please contact us – our details are at the end of this letter.

The doorstep delivery service is currently supported by Oakham School volunteers but as the school begins its new term we are looking at ways we can continue deliveries. The delivery service has enabled us to reach more Rutland residents, particularly those in rural villages. We continue to provide 7-Day food packs and are including out more fresh foods. We also have the capability for ad-hoc rapid response food pack deliveries.

We are fortunate that our food and toiletries donations have held up well, our supermarket collection points are still available. Our warehouse is well stocked at the moment but please keep an eye on our Facebook page for our shortages (Did you know that you don't need to be a Facebook user to see our posts here's the link https://www.facebook.com/pg/rutland.foodbank/posts/?ref=page_internal)

At the moment we would welcome crackers and rice cakes for lunches. We also need men's shaving foam and deodorant. We also need washing pods (preferably non-bio which is more suitable for laundering children's clothing).

We are pleased to continue receiving financial donations from small to quite large. These have come from individuals, local and national business and from some amazing fundraising efforts.

The RCC /Voluntary Action Rutland Community Collection Scheme which brings in donations from local villages is working well and is a great example of partnership working. It is enabling village residents to make donations without travelling unnecessarily.

We continue to develop and strengthen our networks and connection via online meetings and the RCC Voluntary, Community & Faith (VCF) group sharing best practice, national and local initiatives and concerns. The group is looking at the next steps as the lockdown eases, in the next 3-9 months and the following year or two is unknown so this group is proving a vital forum for us to work together to maintain local services.

If you have any queries or need to signpost anyone please contact info@rutland.foodbank.org.uk or the foodbank mobile 07582 783363

Oakham Christian Meditation Group

We are an ecumenical group of Christians who meditate weekly throughout the year on Wednesday at 6.00/6.30 pm. The group met formerly at the chapel of St John & St Anne but Covid restrictions prohibit this at present so Stephen Griffiths has kindly agreed that the group may hold their meetings in The Lady Chapel, All Saints Church from Wednesday, 2nd September, 2020. All are welcome. Please wear a mask and follow social distancing. Please contact Marjorie on marjorieport46@gmail.com 07753870151 for more information.

Planned Giving

The diocese are making significant changes to the planned giving scheme that over 100 members of All Saints Oakham use. With bank transfers to Peterborough who remit the funds to All Saints and reclaim Gift aid where applicable. The Diocese will outsource this service to a third party by the end of 2020. The PCC reviewed this arrangement and decided that it was in All Saints and the givers best interest to bring this service in house. This has been successfully introduced in October 2019 with over 20 people using the in house service. All accounting systems and GDPR (data protection) processes are in place. If you are one of the 100 using the Peterborough system we would ask that you transfer from Peterborough to All Saints. To do this you need to stop the bank transfer to Peterborough and replace it with new standing order to Oakham All Saints PCC sort code 40-43-05 account number 01141171. We will be checking to ensure you do not double pay in one month. To help with the Gift Aid claim would you please confirm you are a UK tax payer and if the money is transferred from a joint account under which name the tax can be reclaimed. Letting me know by email or phone. Also please use the contacts below if you would like a more detailed explanation for these changes. Richard Plummer (01572 720506 / richard@familyplummer.co.uk)
