From the Team Rector

Dear friends,

I write the morning after the latest announcement of a national lockdown. I am sure our hearts go out to the many people who face another round of disruption and anguish, those whose workload will increase, those whose business or livelihood are in jeopardy, those facing further isolation and loneliness, and those who are meeting the extraordinary demand for treatment and care.

God has placed within the human spirit God the capacity for resilience and hope, but these twin virtues need to be constantly renewed and refreshed. It is perhaps timely then that this latest lockdown coincides with the remembrance of the Baptism of Christ this Sunday. Mark's gospel begins not with the birth of Christ but his baptism. It is a moment of profound affirmation as God speaks as a father to his son, 'You are my Son, whom I love; with you I am well pleased.' (Mark 1:11). It was with these words overflowing in his heart that Jesus embarked on his self-sacrificial mission. Only the deep and unchangeable knowledge that he was loved and cherished by God could sustain Jesus through the trials that would follow. At his lowest moments of abandonment and rejection (and most of all at his crucifixion) these words were his security.

As this new year begins (with all its challenges and uncertainties) it is good to know that God has spoken to us in the same way. In our baptism God declares his love for us. We become the children he loves, with whom he is well pleased. In the words of the baptism service 'we are children of the same heavenly Father...we belong to him through faith.' Knowing who we are, and to whom we belong, is especially important when we can no longer do what we want to do. When the familiar things of life are stripped away from us we are left with the question, 'Who am I?' The baptism of Christ answers that question. We are younger brothers and sisters of Christ, brought into the family of God by the faith we profess, symbolised in our baptism.

Like Christ we can claim God's words of approval 'You are my child, whom I love; with you I am well pleased.' This is what we need to hear when our resilience and hope are worn down. If the trials we face bring us closer that realisation, then they will not be wasted.

With love in Christ,

Stephen

8am Holy Communion

Collect

Eternal Father, who at the baptism of Jesus
revealed him to be your Son, anointing him with the Holy Spirit:
grant to us, who are born again by water and the Spirit, that we may be faithful to our calling as your adopted children;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

First Reading – Genesis 1.1-5

A reading from the Book of Genesis

In the beginning when God created the heavens and the earth, the earth was a formless void and darkness covered the face of the deep, while a wind from God swept over the face of the waters. Then God said, 'Let there be light'; and there was light. And God saw that the light was good; and God separated the light from the darkness. God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night. And there was evening and there was morning, the first day.

This is the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Gospel Reading – Mark 1.4-11

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.

Glory to you, O Lord.

John the baptizer appeared in the wilderness, proclaiming a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins. And people from the whole Judean countryside and all the people of Jerusalem were going out to him, and were baptized by him in the river Jordan, confessing their sins. Now John was clothed with camel's hair, with a leather belt around his waist, and he ate locusts and wild honey. He proclaimed, 'The one who is more powerful than I is coming after me; I am not worthy to stoop down and untie the thong of his sandals. I have baptized you with water; but he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit.' In those days Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee and was baptized by John in the Jordan. And just as he was coming up out of the water, he saw the heavens torn apart and the Spirit descending like a dove on him. And a voice came from heaven, 'You are my Son, the Beloved; with you I am well pleased.'

This is the Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, O Christ.

Post Communion Prayer

Lord of all time and eternity,
you opened the heavens and revealed yourself as Father in the baptism of Jesus your beloved Son:
by the power of your Spirit complete the heavenly work of our rebirth through the waters of the new creation;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Opening Sentence & Greeting

Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you became believers?

Acts 19:2

Opening Prayer

Faithful and Eternal God, As the New Year unfolds, the baptism of our Lord reminds us that your love is with us in every new beginning. Wash away our cynicism and open our eyes to new possibilities; that we may both find and spread hope and joy in whatever circumstances surround us. Amen

Candle is lit

Jesus Christ is the light of the World

Jesus is our Way

With Jesus even the dark places are light

Jesus is the Truth

In Jesus we shall live forever

Jesus is our Life

Let us confess our sins to Almighty God

God our Father, long-suffering, full of grace and truth,

You create us from nothing and give us life.

You give your faithful people new life in the water of baptism.

You do not turn your face from us, nor cast us aside.

We confess that we have sinned against you and our neighbours.

We have wounded your love and marred your image in us.

Restore us for the sake of your Son and bring us to heavenly joy, in Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

May the God of all healing and forgiveness, draw us to himself and cleanse us from our sins, that we may behold the glory of his Son, the Word made flesh, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Liturgy of the Word

We say together the Psalm appointed for today

Psalm 29

1 Ascribe to the Lord, you powers of heaven, *
ascribe to the Lord glory and strength.

2 Ascribe to the Lord the honour due to his name; *
worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness.

3 The voice of the Lord is upon the waters;
the God of glory thunders; *
the Lord is upon the mighty waters. R

4 The voice of the Lord is mighty in operation; *
the voice of the Lord is a glorious voice.

5 The voice of the Lord breaks the cedar trees; *
the Lord breaks the cedars of Lebanon;

6 He makes Lebanon skip like a calf * and Sirion like a young wild ox. R

7 The voice of the Lord splits the flash of lightning;
the voice of the Lord shakes the wilderness; *
the Lord shakes the wilderness of Kadesh.

8 The voice of the Lord makes the oak trees writhe and strips the forests bare; *
in his temple all cry, 'Glory!'

9 The Lord sits enthroned above the water flood; *
the Lord sits enthroned as king for evermore.

10 The Lord shall give strength to his people; *
the Lord shall give his people the blessing of peace.

First Reading – Genesis 1.1-5

A reading from the Book of Genesis

This is the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Second Reading – Acts 19.1-7

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles

While Apollos was in Corinth, Paul passed through the inland regions and came to Ephesus, where he found some disciples. He said to them, 'Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you became believers?' They replied, 'No, we have not even heard that there is a Holy Spirit.' Then he said, 'Into what then were you baptized?' They answered, 'Into John's baptism.' Paul said, 'John baptized with the baptism of repentance, telling the people to believe in the one who was to come after him, that is, in Jesus.' On hearing this, they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus. When Paul had laid his hands on them, the Holy Spirit came upon them, and they spoke in tongues and prophesied – altogether there were about twelve of them.

This is the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Reading – Mark 1.4-11

A reading from the Gospel according to Mark

John the baptizer appeared in the wilderness, proclaiming a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins. Reflection – Alan Rudge

Readings - Acts 19:1-7 and Mark 1:4-11

What's in a name and why are names so important? What do names mean to us and what did they mean in the past? Parents-to-be sometimes spend a lot of time researching the meaning of names. If they were sports fanatics they might name a boy after a famous sportsman or in the case of one Liverpool supporter the whole of the team! Some people choose aspirational names for their children, such as Elijah or even Jesus! In the past names were very important because of what they revealed about your family and its history – we see the importance of family name and history throughout the Bible. When Elizabeth and Zechariah brought their son for baptism their friends were astonished when they said his name would be John as there had been no one in their family of that name! Today some names tell us immediately about the occupations of our forebears or their family - Cooper, Farmer, Johnson etc. More importantly, God himself has given a person a new name to reflect their new identity; Abram and Sarai to Abraham and Sarah, Jacob to Israel. Jesus renamed Simon to indicate who he would be, he renamed Saul as Paul. So it's not surprising that, in the early church, naming became associated with the Baptism of new believers, often after a fairly long period of teaching, the adults frequently adopting new names for themselves. It was a public declaration of who they had become through their faith in Jesus. The Chinese Christians often have a western Christian name to identify themselves as Christians, a very obvious sign of their faith, and then their Chinese family name

When Jesus was baptised by John he was named by God

“You are my Son, whom I love; with you I am well pleased.”

How many other people heard this we do not know but Jesus did; he was given the confirmation of who he was which was affirmed by his anointing by the Holy Spirit. The Three Persons of the Trinity present together yet separate.

As Jesus was coming up out of the water, he saw heaven being torn open and the Spirit descending on him like a dove.

Jesus didn't need to be baptised; he was and is the only sinless person who has ever existed. So why did he insist that John baptise him? Firstly it was the acknowledgement of John as his God-ordained forerunner; secondly, he was identifying himself with humanity; Jesus fully God and fully human, the promised Messiah, became one with us. The ceremonial washing he received was the example for us to follow. Right from the beginning, Jesus never commanded from behind, he led from the front. Ultimately, Jesus became 'sin for us' through his death on the cross, taking all our shame and sin upon himself so that through our belief and trust in him we could be released from its burden.

So, for Christians, Baptism isn't just about naming; it's also about being given an identity with Christ – he in us and us in him, as Paul describes it. Our reading from Acts clearly shows that, just as when Jesus was baptised, there are two parts; water and Spirit. The people had received John's baptism, a baptism of repentance, when they took the step to be cleansed, symbolised by being immersed in water. Paul enquires:

“Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you believed?”

They answered, “No, we have not even heard that there is a Holy Spirit.”

So the people had been 'washed' through John's baptism – their decision – but they hadn't received the gift that God had for them. When Paul laid his hands on them God filled them with the Holy Spirit, evidenced by their speaking in tongues and prophesying! God had made them his own. If you have time read the rest of Chapter 19 of Acts – it is very revealing. It's not just the decision we make it's also God's response to our repentance and decision to allow him to deal with our shame and sin when we ask him into our lives. Of course, this isn't just a one off request; we continually need to ask to be filled with the Holy Spirit to help us to keep our new identity and to have the help to become the people God wants us to be - to fulfil our potential.

“Therefore, I urge you brothers and sisters, in view of God’s mercy, to offer your bodies as living sacrifices, holy and pleasing to God – this is your spiritual act of worship. Do not conform any longer to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. Then you will be able to test and approve what God’s will is – his good, pleasing and perfect will.”

(Romans 12:1-2)

Our ambition should be to seek an increasingly closer relationship with God; to allow him to lead us along the path he has laid out for us, so we can search and determine what his priorities are. Peter explains it like this:

“As you come to him (Jesus) the living Stone – rejected by men but chosen by God and precious to him – you also, like living stones, are being built into a spiritual house to be a holy priesthood, offering spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ.”

Meeting together to worship, pray and celebrate, strengthens us and encourages us to allow the Holy Spirit to unlock our potential to achieve great things for God, both individually and collectively as the Body of Christ; to achieve things we never imagined we could do. Our identity in Christ is shared by all Christians throughout the world, reaching down to us in our rural churches. There are many examples of individuals or small groups of people who have done amazing things sometimes against all odds because they had the courage to follow the vision God gave them: 24/7 prayer, Jackie Pullinger and the walled city in Hong Kong, Samaritans (I vicar), Water Aid, Open Doors (I Brother Andrew), Release International (I Richard Wurmbandt), and Send a Cow; in fact a large proportion of today's aid organisations. What about what has been achieved here; The Drop in Centre, the Food Bank and the Sukkot house? All three started with the vision of one or two people and their perseverance to see them to fulfilment.;

We read in Proverbs 19:17:

“Whoever is generous to the poor lends to God, and he will repay them for their deed.”

What does all of this mean for us in 2021 and beyond? What is our response to the challenges we face – climate change, independence from Europe, the pandemic, inequality - in the future? Do we sigh and say it isn't possible to do all the things we want to? Or do we put our trust in the living God, seek his will for us and for our churches pray together and have an expectation that he will give us what we need to continue his work here? God will give us what we need in his good time and in response to the sacrifices we make to further his kingdom.

God says, "I will build my church."

God will build up his church using us as his living stones. We, for our part need to:

Be Active in worship

Continue to support the work of the church

Find Time to pray each day

Support those in need.

Just as the early church was identified through its acts so we too should be identifiable through our actions.

We have a significant part to play and the church here is still a focal part of the community. Let us pray and work together to keep it as such for years and centuries to come.

Renewal of Baptismal vows

In our baptism we died with Christ and were buried with him, so that we might rise with him to a new life within the family of his Church. We now meet to renew the promises made at our baptism, to affirm our allegiance to Christ and our rejection of all that is evil.

Stand

Do you renew and affirm the promises made at your baptism?

I do.

Do you reject the devil and all proud rebellion against God?

I reject them.

Do you renounce the deceit and corruption of evil?

I renounce them.

Do you repent of the sins that separate us from God and neighbour?

I repent of them.

Do you turn to Christ as Saviour?

I turn to Christ.

Do you submit to Christ as Lord?

I submit to Christ.

Do you come to Christ, the Way, the Truth and the Life?

I come to Christ.

Do you believe and trust in God the Father?

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

Do you believe and trust in God the Son?

I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried; he descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again; he ascended into heaven, he is seated at the right hand of the Father, and he will come again to judge the living and the dead.

Do you believe and trust in God the Holy Spirit?

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

Let us pray.

Almighty God, you have given us the will to do all these things: Give us the courage and strength to achieve them to the honour and glory of your name, and the good of your Church and people; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

May Christ dwell in your hearts through faith, that you may be rooted and grounded in love and bring forth the fruit of the Spirit. Amen

A Song of the New Jerusalem

1 Arise, shine out, for your light has come, *
the glory of the Lord is rising upon you.

2 Though night still covers the earth, *
and darkness the peoples;

3 Above you the Holy One arises, *
and above you God's glory appears.

4 The nations will come to your light, *
and kings to your dawning brightness.

5 Your gates will lie open continually, *
shut neither by day nor by night.

6 The sound of violence shall be heard no longer in your land, * or ruin and devastation within your borders.

7 You will call your walls, Salvation, *
and your gates, Praise.

8 No more will the sun give you daylight, *
nor moonlight shine upon you;

9 But the Lord will be your everlasting light, *
your God will be your splendour.

10 For you shall be called the city of God, *
the dwelling of the Holy One of Israel.

Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit;
as it was in the beginning is now
and shall be for ever. Amen.

BIBLE IN A YEAR – EXODUS

From Pharaoh to Freedom.

Exodus takes Jacob's family, who have settled in Egypt and prospered, into a time of adversity and enslavement when the ruling powers see the Hebrew people as a threat. God raises up Moses and prepares him for the task of bringing His people out of slavery and into the promised land. Exodus tells us of the life of Moses, his meeting with God at the burning bush, his confrontation with Pharaoh, of the Passover and how God works to enable his purposes. Exodus ends with Moses meeting with God on Mount Sinai and receiving the Law.

If you would like to find out more about the book of Exodus and engage with it prayerfully go to this weblink (<https://bit.ly/39J6W00>) where you will find readings, art, links to music, David Suchet reading the passages of scripture and to the Bible Project animated outline of the book of the week.

New Curate for the Oakham Team – summer 2021

Hi, my name is Shakeel Nurmah, I'm 24 years old, and I am delighted to be joining the Oakham team as Assistant Curate in June 2021. I grew up in Southampton in a Christian home and attended a South-Asian Church with my family, which later evolved to be an international free church. At 18 years old I moved to Bristol to read Theology at Trinity College Bristol. After three years in Bristol, I moved to Kettering, where I was serving as an intern as a part of Peterborough Diocese's Echo Ministry Experience Scheme. During the two years I was in Kettering, I was exploring a sense of calling to ordained ministry with Peterborough Diocese DDO, Steve Benoy. In April 2019 I was recommended for training and moved to Durham in the Autumn to begin training at Cranmer Hall. After two years of training, I will be moving back to Peterborough Diocese to serve my title post as a part of the Oakham team. I will be moving to Rutland with Cecily, my fiancée, after our wedding next June. We met in Durham at Cranmer Hall, where we have both been training for ordination. We will be getting married in the summer just before we move to Rutland. Cecily will be weekly boarding in Durham as she completes her final year of training and will be back in Rutland on the weekends and the holidays, so you will still see her around.

I am very excited about joining the Oakham team, and I am very much looking forward to meeting you all. I hope that I can bring my passion for Jesus to the ministry across the churches. In my spare time, I enjoy snooker, tennis, reading and audio production. Thank you for all you have been doing in preparation for our arrival. Please continue to pray for us in the run-up to next summer. We can't wait. See you in June 2021! - Shakeel Nurmah

Revd Canon Moseling

Revd Canon Peter Moseling
I am sorry to announce that Revd Peter Moseling died recently. He provided service cover in the Oakham Team from time to time. Peter was priest-in-charge and then vicar of Holy Trinity and St Paul's Northampton in Peterborough Diocese. He also served as a chaplain at Northampton University. Before retirement Peter served as a vicar and area dean in Southwark Diocese. Please remember Peter's wife Ann.

Latest lockdown instructions:

Public worship is permitted under the latest lockdown instructions and churches are allowed to remain open for private prayer. The instructions will no doubt be updated as the month goes on. Sunday services will continue in line with the pattern outlined above.

10.30am services will be broadcast online. In addition there will be public services of Morning Prayer at All Saints Oakham at 8.30am on Tuesdays and Thursdays and a service of Holy Communion at All Saints Oakham at 9am on Tuesdays. Please consider all the Government guidance as you decide whether to join in public worship, and continue to observe all the social distancing instructions if you do attend.

Churches Together in Oakham Prayer Breakfast

I write on behalf of Churches Together in Oakham and District to invite you to the annual breakfast meeting during the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity. Unfortunately we cannot meet in person, but rather than miss a year the CTiO committee has arranged a Zoom gathering on Saturday 23rd January 9am-11am. The theme is 'Responding to COVID19 - the present and future of online and in person church'.

We will be guided through our thinking and discussion by The Venerable Bob Jackson, who has researched and written on the church's response to COVID19 over the last year <https://www.cpas.org.uk/browse-everything/everybody-welcome-online>.
In preparation for our event, each church has submitted a questionnaire to help Bob understand our strengths and weaknesses.

To access the event you will need to email me at stephen@oakhamteam.org.uk by Wednesday 20th January. I will send you the joining instructions and the format of the session. We will have some time for discussion in small groups. If you are new to Zoom or will need any assistance accessing the event please indicate this in your email. The CTiO committee realises that not everyone can, or wants to, join in church events online. The discussion will cover the broader picture of church life. We hope and pray our time together will equip us to support one another in our mission and ministry to Oakham and District. Stephen

Donations for Christingle

Thank you to everyone who collected a Christingle kit, we hope you enjoyed sharing the light. If you would like to make a donation to the Children's Society please get them to the team office as soon as possible.

Hope into Action tenants

A big thank you for your generosity in providing items for the hamper or donating money to help them buy their Christmas presents and gain access to the internet in the house. This plus the cards were very much appreciated and your love and support felt by them both.

Heather and Gary

Little Financial Projects

Thank you so much for all your support for the little financial projects before Christmas. In total the sales of masks, handicrafts, calendars, preserves and puzzles raised £900. This wonderful amount is due to your amazing generosity and will be a real benefit to the finances of the church at this time. Elaine and Graham Peel

Card Payments

We now have a card payment machine available to make donations. Please ask one of the vergers or church wardens if you would like to make use of it.

I am usually at home at my desk Wednesdays 2pm-4pm and happy to take calls if you would like to share news and chat. Please feel free to call 869483. Stephen
